

Clinic workers charged with fabricating phony accident (Eagle-Tribune Online)

Contributed by Webmaster
Sunday, 07 October 2007
Last Updated Sunday, 07 October 2007

LAWRENCE - Three former employees of a now-defunct Essex Street chiropractic clinic that was once the top moneymaker in the state are among nine people charged with fabricating a three-car crash nearly five years ago.

Advertising Solutions For Chiropractors

No-fault law is revived, reformed (Miami Herald)

Florida's no-fault auto-insurance law is coming back Jan. 1. But some sections of the new law take effect as soon as Gov. Charlie Crist signs it, expected next week.

Chamber business fair set for Oct. 13 (Carlsbad Current-Argus)

CARLSBAD There will be plenty of giveaways and at least one opportunity to give back when the Carlsbad Chamber of Commerce's 10th annual business fair kicks off Oct. 13.

{mos_sb_discuss:2}